Profile

Industrious frontend web developer passionate about building visually appealing and user-friendly websites. Competent in HTML5, CSS, and responsive web design with a good understanding of Git(hub) and Javascript (ES6+) after having built many webpages and projects. At the start of my career, I am eager to improve my skills, increase my knowledge in a professional environment, and to become an integral and value-adding asset of your team.

Work Experience

 Jan 19 / June 22

 Burgos, Spain

English Language Teacher

I taught English as a second language to all ages, levels and abilities for nearly 4 years in the Burgos area in schools, companies, academies, privately and online for a wide range of purposes and outcomes. Was rated a 5* teacher by my students.

Planned and prepared 20+ hours of classes per week, every week. Created countless resources and presentations to enhance my students' learning experience. Managed big groups and made strong relationships with people of all ages and language abilities. Successfully led many students pass to exams and achieve their goals.

 June 18 / Oct 18

 Leicester, UK

Film Production Assistant

Joined various professional film and video production companies in my local region while trying to break into the industry after my Masters in Digital Filmmaking.

Helped teams on set or on location to produce high-quality videos, expanded my skills and knowledge with technical equipment, learned to be a team player and to pull my weight within a team environment.

 Oct 17 / April 18

 Leicester, UK

Waiter & Kitchen Assistant

Hospitality work in a successful local restaurant, serving customers as well as working in the kitchens.

Volunteering

Spanglish Speakers Burgos

June 2020 – August 2022

I created and organised an English-Spanish language exchange group and events for the locals of Burgos for over two years. When I left it had over 150 members and sometimes attendances of over 30 people.

Social Anthropology Society President

Sept 2015 – June 2016

I led this society and a small team society during the last year of my undergraduate degree. When I left it had over 170 members, had carried out many successful events, and I received high praise from my professors.
